

Women's Inc.

Professional Women Helping Girls Succeed.

What is Women's Inc.?

Women's Inc. is a new initiative from Girls Incorporated of Chattanooga that brings together women of all ages from a variety of professional fields in order to support Girls Incorporated of Chattanooga's programs. Women's Inc. will provide volunteers, raise money, develop mentoring programs for girls and young women and raise awareness of issues currently facing girls.

Women's Inc. Mission

Women's Inc. strives to support the work of Girls Incorporated of Chattanooga by bringing professional women together in order to present positive, local role models for girls, raise awareness of issues affecting girls today, and encourage the next generation of women to pursue post-secondary education and life-long economic stability.

Who can join?

Women's Inc. is open to all post-college women in any career field.

When are meetings?

Women's Inc. holds monthly meetings at Girls Inc. offices at 709 South Greenwood Avenue in Highland Park.

How do I join?

Women's Inc. is free to join. All you need is the desire to help girls succeed.

How can I get involved?

Women's Inc. will be working on several projects:

- Mentoring program for girls
- Planning for Blasts Off! on September 26
- Kick It for Girls Kickball Tournament on October 18 at Coolidge Park
- Girls Inc. Regional Conference on November 7-8
- Project Prom in Spring 2009.

Women's Inc. will also provide volunteer help to plan for Blasts Off! on September 26 and the Girls Inc. Regional Conference on November 7-8.

If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact Adrienne Royer, Director of Development and Communications at 423-624-4757 or aroyer@girlsincofchatt.org.

